

P.O. Box 1454 • Marion, South Carolina 29571

2022 INTERNATIONAL FOOD PAVILION APPLICATION

March 10, 2022

Dear FoxTrot Food Vendor:

The 28th Marion FoxTrot Festival will be held on Saturday, May 21, 2022. Food vendors are a very important part our festival and we would love for you to join us! With the large number of hungry people expected to attend, there should be a great opportunity for you to have a successful day.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

- Fee: $300.00 (without electricity) $325.00 (with electricity)
Due: May 6, 2022 (Do not mail fee after this date. You must call or text Lisa Seabrook at (843) 617-8723 to ensure there is a space available and you must bring the $300.00 cash fee on the day of the festival).
- There will be an additional $25 fee for electricity.
- All fees are NON-REFUNDABLE.
- Along with your application and fee, you must send a copy of your insurance and business license. If you do not have a South Carolina Business license, you will be able to purchase one on site from an IRS Representative. These licenses will be good for one (1) year in South Carolina.
- Food vendors must be set up and ready for a DHEC inspection by 9am.
- All tanks (gas, etc.) must be secured and not freestanding. Marion Fire Department and/or designee will notify vendors of any violations. Vendors who fail to immediately comply with safety measures will forfeit vending space and fees.
- You can begin setting up your equipment on Friday night after 7pm ONLY IF YOUR SPACE IS AVAILABLE (NO CAR PARKED IN SPACE). WE WILL NOT NOR CAN WE ASK SOMEONE TO MOVE THEIR VEHICLE UNTIL 6AM ON SATURDAY MORNING.

- The sale of food must stop at 7pm and you must be completely off the street by 8pm. You can stop selling before 7pm if it takes longer than (1) one hour to breakdown your station.
- Water will be provided at service locations. No one vendor will have exclusive rights to the water source.
- Trash bins will be provided and serviced for each vendor. You are not allowed to put trash on the street. City of Marion Street Department employees will be at the festival to help with any of your trash removal issues.
- Vendors cannot place any of their items on the sidewalk behind their booth. Please request enough space to place all items on the sides of your booth.
- If using a grill or any other equipment that uses oil to prepare your food, you must place some type of container under the equipment to catch any oil that may leak. Vendors not following these guidelines or is caught dumping ANY substances down the street drain will be fined no less than $300.00 by the Marion Police Department.
- All vendors MUST provide a menu and price list in full EYE VIEW.
- Vendors can sell sodas, water, tea and lemonade, but NO ALCOHOL OF ANY TYPE WILL BE SOLD. You will be fined by the Marion Police Department.
- The Marion Foxtrot Festival is a family-oriented, community event, therefore profanity, fighting and alcohol will not be tolerated.

2022 International Food Pavilion Application

Saturday, May 21, 2022

Fee: $300.00 (without electricity) $325.00 (with electricity) (Non-Refundable)

(PLEASE PRINT)

Name of Business _____

Contact Person _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip Code _____

Cell Phone # _____ Email Address _____

Please list foods that you will sell at festival. Place a star symbol beside your top three (3) selling foods.

Size of Space Needed: _____ Power Needs: _____

- NON-REFUNABLE Application Fee: $300.00 or $325.00 in hand by May 6, 2022
- Applications are accepted on a 1st come, 1st accepted basis/electricity need.
- The assigned spaces are determined by date application and fee are received.
- Applications are accepted by mail or in person ONLY. Electronic applications are not accepted.

Make checks/money orders payable to: Marion FoxTrot Festival

Mail to: Marion Foxtrot Festival P.O. Box 1454 Marion, SC 29571

By signing, I acknowledge that I understand and agree to comply with terms enclosed application & Rules and Regulations.

Signature

Date